JAY'S ORIGINATIONS

My own originations are attracting lots of attention. They are very beautiful with their odd colors.
 Dusky Boy—Very large. Standards satiny buff pink, falls red mauve; beautiful. $3.00.
 Dusky Girl—A sister to Dusky Boy. A large tan and red, a new color of Iris. $2.00.
 Embassy—Very tall and large. Standards medium bright blue, falls dark blue. 25c.
 Hudson's Choice—Standards pinkish buff, falls striped red brown. 25c.
 Jay's Choice—Standards bright yellow, falls heavy striped white; a beautiful Iris. 25c.
 Jay's Eureka—Standards pure glistening white, falls pink. 25c.
 Jay's White—A very tall large white. 25c.
 Joseph's Coat—Many colors—pink, maroon, violet, etc. 25c.
 Ozark Blue—Very large tall bright sky blue. No other Iris of this shade of blue. The demand was so great for it I had to leave it from my last year's list to increase stock. I have never been able to supply the demand for Ozark Blue and Dusky Boy, two great Iris. The standards and falls are the same shade. $2.00.

 Jay's Pink—A very large pure pink; very fine. 25c.
 Pink Glory—Large beautiful pink. 25c.
 Retha Jay—Standards burnt orange, falls dark mauve; odd and pretty; late bloomer. 25c.
 Speckled Beauty—Tall large white, heavy speckled lavender pink. 25c.
 Waxwings—Waxy white, heavy bordered blue. 25c.
 Mrs. George E. Horton of Curryville, Mo., a large grower of Dahlias and Iris, writes me that she was crazy over Jay's Eureka and Hudson's Choice. Ozark Blue is the largest Iris I ever saw—three blooms open at once made a huge bouquet. It's a monster.
FALL BLOOMERS
 Autumn Klug—Large blue. 15c.
 Autumn Queen—Pure white; extra free bloomer. 23c.
 Autumn Surprise—A fine pure blue originated by Mrs. Baker, near here. 50c.

 J. A. Slote—Originated in this state; very large. Standards white, but in cloudy wet weather they are creamy, falls light yellow. 25c.
 Orange Queen—Deep yellow. 10c.
 Stettellac—Creamy white and primrose. 8c.
 Rose Mist—Rosy mauve. 25c.
 I have a good many kinds of Iris in small lots not on my list. Special offer—33 all different, named and labeled Iris, choice large flowering kinds of which I have a surplus, my selection, will include a rare red or an odd rare Iris. $1.00.
 100 large flowering seedlings, no two alike. $2.00. 25 or 50 sold at same rate.
 100 well mixed, all colors, of named kinds, not labeled. $2.00. Same sent not prepaid for $1.00.
 Grape Hyacinths, blue and heavenly blue, perhaps some white. mixed. 10c per doz.
 Hardy winter Gladiolus, deep violet, bloom in May; must be planted in fall, July, August or September; very rare. 50c each.
 Everything on this list sent prepaid unless otherwise stated. Iris are state inspected, large healthy blooming size roots. Everything guaranteed strictly true to name. Sums under $1.00 may be sent in unused stamps, 3c ones preferred. If you remit by check send 5c for collection. Money order preferred.
 I have been in the flower business over 40 years.
 Send for Dahlia and Gladiolus list.
 Please write your order on separate sheet of paper.
